

Call for Members

Arts Network Ottawa is looking for emerging arts leaders to join the Young Arts Leaders Collective. The goal of the committee is to strengthen Ottawa's cultural scene by identifying, developing and implementing projects and initiatives to support and develop the careers of emerging artists and cultural workers. We do this through networking events, panel discussions, workshops, programs and by sharing information and opportunities. For a catalogue of our past programming, please visit our Facebook page.

In 2019/20 the collective plans to spearhead a mentorship program for emerging arts professionals (artists and administrators) that will pair 15 mentees with 15 mentors. We are looking for additional members, from a variety of backgrounds and disciplines, to join us in developing and delivering exciting initiatives, including the upcoming mentorship program. We are looking for individuals who can commit to a 1-year term. Please note that this is a volunteer position.

By joining the committee, you will:

- Join a community of peers;
- Be part of building a network that responds to the needs of your community;
- Gain experience and capacity in arts administration, including in the areas of program development, event curation, project management, community outreach, communication and marketing.

Deadline: Friday September 6th, 2019

To apply to be on the collective, please submit the following via email to Alex Maltby at alex@artsnetottawa.ca:

- One-page letter of intent. Please indicate why you want to be part of the collective, what you hope to accomplish and what you can bring to the group. Please indicate role in the arts community (i.e. artist, discipline, art administrator, arts lover, etc.), what role you would like to take on the committee, and your anticipated time availability (i.e. how many hours per month).
- Resume
